What is bugging
you about what you read today?

Included in this download are 10 questions about plot. The questions are written on printable question cards in color and black & white, as well as on printable lined paper. These can be used over-and-over again with any fiction book. Ideas for using these question cards and paper include:

- As discussion questions during guided reading or whole group instruction.
- As an assessment tool after whole group instruction or guided reading.
- For independent work in literacy centers.
- For group discussions during literature circles.
- For students to copy and respond to in their reader's notebooks.
- Any other creative way that works for your classroom!

Common Core State Standards that apply to these questions:

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.3.1 Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.3.3 Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events
